

Fashion Design

AIM

The purpose of this course is to prepare students for work in the field of fashion design, garment production, retail sales, public relations, self employment, pattern cutting, garment quality control and fashion buying and retail display

This practical course is supplemented by a work placement programme to enable students to experience the working environment of the fashion world.

DURATION

One Year

There is the option of a second year subject to sufficient demand.

EXAMINING BODIES

- City and Guilds of London
- Further Education and Training Awards Council (FETAC)

AWARD/ FETAC CODE

Certificate in Fashion Design. - AFDXX – FETAC Level 5
City & Guilds Level 2

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Leaving Certificate or LCA standard of education and a proven interest in fashion. For mature candidates, experience will be considered in lieu of the Leaving Certificate.

HOW TO APPLY

All interviews will be held beginning Wednesday 26th August 2009. For details please see page 4.

COURSE CONTENT

- Garment Production Technology
- Pattern Cutting Skills
- Creative Design Techniques
- Tailoring Skills
- Illustration/Art/Drawing
- Communications
- Fashion Buying & Retailing
- Work Experience

COMPETITIONS

Students enter all major national fashion competitions i.e.

- Nokia Young Designer Award
- Persil Irish Fashion Awards
- Gillette Fashion Awards

FURTHER STUDIES

The option of second year, subject to sufficient demand.
FETAC Level 6 Advanced Certificate in Fashion Design
– Cork College of Commerce

Photograph by Damien Drohan

FURTHER ENQUIRIES

Ms. Christina healy
021 4222100 (switchboard)
email: chealy@ccoc.ie